MODEL KIT CATALOG

A SHORT HISTORY OF REVELL

It all began back in the early 1950's, when Revell introduced the world's first scale model plastic car kits, forerunners of today's more advanced and highly detailed plastic models.

From these humble beginnings in Venice, California, Revell has grown to occupy a 10½ acre headquarters which employs over 500 people. Revell products are now manufactured in eight countries and sold in more than eighty. In its 30 year history, Revell has produced more than 242,000,000 units.

Revell now manufactures over 200 different model kits, including miniature reproductions in exact detail of just about everything that rolls, flies, or floats. Revell also manufactures fine quality Home Race Sets and packaged crafts, 3-D Yarn Art™ and FabricArt.™

Though a Revell kit can be purchased in a hobby, chain, or department store for from under $1.00 to $18.00, the master mold for the model costs between $50,000 and $150,000. Every proposed kit requires research and development, planning, engineering, manufacturing, packaging, advertising and marketing. Its selection must be exacting.

Just what does it take to manufacture a model kit? The way it happens at Revell goes something like this...you the consumer, often write in and suggest a model kit you would like us to make. These suggestions are passed along to our Advanced Development Department, who evaluates the suggestions and make recommendations to the Revell management team. If the management team approves the project, they forward the project to the Revell engineering staff. An engineer is then assigned to the project and is responsible for designing this model in such a way that it will be economical to manufacture and practical to assemble by you.

From detailed engineering specifications, a hand-built original model must be created. From this original model, plaster and epoxy molds are made. These molds are then used as patterns for the steel tools and dies which are cut on pantograph machines. Finally, the steel dies are hand finished, placed in a mold base, and installed in an injection molding machine. This machine can turn out a kit in twenty seconds that has been in the research, development and engineering stages for over a year.

Ye Olde Ships Gallery

The First totally new modeling concept in a decade! (Avail. Aug. '72)

If you're a model builder with limited space to display your skill or a home decorator who's looking for a different touch — here's the answer to your problem.

Ships Gallery is more than half of a ship model with an antique metal look. She's mounted against an ancient map reproduction on a wall plaque of simulated wood. Assembly procedure similar to other Revell models. Kit includes: plaque, map, fully detailed model, and gold antiquing wax. Three popular ship models are now recreated in this new and unique form.

U.S.S. CONSTITUTION H-801

"Old Ironsides" never looked prouder than she does against this Americana map backdrop.

SPANISH GALLEON H-803

In full sail she sets out. The pride of the Spanish Main lives again.

Antique map reprint and woodlike plaque.

Full relief and detail with over half a hull.

CUTTY SARK H-802

This glory of the age of sail and queen of the clippers is now part of Ships Gallery.

Decorative elegance in a permanent model display.

Big 1/16 SCALE CARS

New large size now allows for full exciting details. The 426 Hemi engine, "king of the dragways", is reproduced complete with wiring, fuel and oil lines, and some even have movable injector scoop butterflies! Wide, mag-mounted slicks are the rear wheels. The new size also makes painting and decaling easier and more accurate than ever before.

To introduce this new scale, Revell has selected the top Rail and Funny Cars to head the list.

Whipple & McCulloch's REVELLUTION™ Funny Car H-1482
Winner of the NHRA World Finals at Indy, Art Whipple and driver Ed McCulloch are drag racing's most famous team.

(Avail. Sept. '72)

Gene Snow's REVELL SNOWMAN™ Funny Car H-1481 (Avail. Aug. '72)
"Gentleman Gene" is also known as "Mr. Funny Car" and the SNOWMAN is the car to back up the claims.

Tony Nancy "The Loner" AA/FD Rail Dragster H-1480
Already a legend, "The Loner" is blasting both the traps and the records with almost every new run. (Avail. Aug. '72)

CALIFORNIA CHARGER H-1483 (Avail. Sept. '72)

Readily acknowledged as one of the best lookin' Rails on the track today, the CHARGER is in constant demand as it appears throughout the country.

These cars and their famous drivers will be touring all across the country this year when they'll be setting new records and blasting their way to new victories.

Be watching for them at a track near you. When you see them be sure to bring along the kit box or a photo of your completed model and they'll autograph it for you.

A Complete How-To-Do-It Guide For Assembling, Painting, And Detailing Any Plastic Model.

Assemble model and apply decals. This technique will provide you with an attractive model of the real thing. However, if you want a more realistic, miniature reproduction of the real thing, please read on.

To start, you'll need these.

Tools: hobby knife; screw driver; tweezers; half-round and round jewelers files; scissors; liquid and tube cement; surfacing putty; Scotch-brand "Magic" tape; "Micro-Set" (for decals); #001, #1, and #3 sable-hair paint brushes; and paint in bottles and/or spray can as outlined in kit instructions.

As parts are needed, they should be cut — not broken — from the molding rack or “sprue” a fraction of an inch above actual part. Cut or shave away excess plastic on raised seams and around edges of parts (round jewelers file can clean away excess from hinge holes, wheel bearings, etc.). Check fit of any moving parts.

Apply the thinnest possible bead of tube cement for plastics along the inner corner of all joining edges.

Clothes pins can be used to clamp smaller parts while glue dries. “Magic” tape or plain marking tape will hold larger parts together while cement dries completely.

Check the box lid and/or photos of the real item to see where any seams appear. Usually, seams between model parts should be filled in with surfacing putty.

Use the half-round jewelers file to smooth off the body filler flush with the surface of the parts after filler has dried at least overnight. Open any assembly holes.

Decals, Chrome & Clear Parts

Cement for plastics will NOT adhere to any PLATED plastic parts. Scrape away plating from joining surfaces or rub it off with a typewriter eraser. Light lenses should be scraped inside of rim and glued on with liquid cement.

Trim clear surrounding each decal tightly as needed, dip in water for a second, place on paper napkin while glue dissolves (few minutes).

When decal slides on paper backing, position on model. Hold decal down with knife tip and pull paper from beneath it. Use damp facial tissue to roll and dab water and air bubbles.

For tight decal fit on irregular surfaces dab on "Micro Set" to soften decal film. Decals are best preserved with overcoat of spray like "Clear" (high-gloss) or "DullCote".

Hold window in place, apply drop of liquid cement at each corner with a toothpick. Clear sections should be glued last as over-sprays will cause "frosting".

Painting & Finishing; Aircraft

After wet sanding filed areas with #500 paper, wash with soap & water, rinse, apply coat of grey primer, let dry.

Masking off areas for best separation of color is done with "Magic" tape or paper patterns tightly taped down.

Canopy lines are best accomplished through masking. Cover entire canopy. Cut tape from framework lines, spray, let dry, remove tape.

"Feathered" edges on camouflage designs are done with holes irregularly punched in a piece of paper held a fraction of an inch above model surface and sprayed.

"Blotch" patterns can be duplicated by dabbing with a fine-pore sponge (a slot car "closed cell" tire works well).

Detailing Ships

The information which follows is about ships because they generally benefit most from more detailing. The tips shown have many applications which can be used on any category of Revell model. Stretched sprue can be used for airplane guy wires or automotive engine detailing as well as for ship railings. The "striping" described below can be used for cars, planes, ships, etc.,

Sails will look even more like cloth if they are "dirtied" a bit. Mix a drop or two of flat brown in a jar lid of thinner and brush on mixture or rub it in with rag.

For the appearance of wood, paint basic brown color, then brush or rag-rub on a thinned down mixture of a drop of tan paint in an ounce of thinner. Flat (no-gloss) is best.

The filigree on Revell's kits is raised above the rest of the surface. It's easier to paint if you use the side of a #000 brush to color the raised portions.

Hobby shops and drafting supply stores often stock "drafting" tape in a wide choice of colors and widths. Tape makes striping ships or cars simple.

Tweezers are a must for assembling small parts and for tying knots on ship's rigging. When rigging is complete, a drop of water-thinned plain white glue will secure knots.

Hold a section of the scrap molding rack, or "sprue", over a candle flame and rotate slowly. When plastic softens, stretch into thin line for ship rigging, aerials, etc.

Congratulations! You have just completed Revell's course in basic plastic modeling. The pointers we have given you are just the beginnings of a satisfying and rewarding hobby.

The difference between just a model and a reproduction in miniature that will look good and last for years is the skill of the artist.

Good luck and happy modeling.
